FLORIDA.

Louisville, Nov. 11.-The chairman of the democratic state executive committee at Monticello, Florida, says the most careful estimates on the figures of 1874 in counties not heard from, and the returns actually in, show a democratic majority surely. The counties not yet heard from are all democratic, and will give large gains. The majority can not fall short of 1 200.

JACKSONVILLE, Nov. 11 .- The distant counties in this state are still to be officially heard from. In regard to the election results, up to this time they can only be estimated, as there are no facilities for telegraphic communication with them. NEW YORK, Nov. 11 .-- A dispatch was received at Democratic beadquarters to-day from Lake City, Fla., stating that 18 counties gave a Democratic majority of 5,513, and that 9 counties gave a Republican majority of 6,867. The remaining 9 countres to be heard from gave a Democratic majority in '74 of 1,906.

den about 400 less. L. D CHILDS.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 11.—By the latest corrected official returns Hampton's majority is 1,484 The full re-turns indicate that Tilden has failen much more behind Hampton's vote than has been supposed. In 10 of 32 counties, Tilden's majority is 453 less than Hampton's. An equal ratio of loss in the remaining 22 counties, would leave Tilden less than 100 majority in the State.

INDIANA.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 11 .- Tilden's majority in the State is 5 424.

The test of a man's real judgment is when he is willing to back it with his money. The Rads have been laving heavy claims to the election in the pation for the past 72 bours or so, and while they do not really look victorious, their boasts have aroused the fears of some of our friends. There is one man, however, who don't scare worth a cent .--Col. Ikey Young was blowing around, Thursday, about Hayes being elected, and scaring the weak-kneed nearly to death. He was going around offering to bet $5 0 that Hayes was the man, and was the big Ike of the streets for awhile. Presently, however, he met Mr. W. H. Gray, the Kentuckian who has been in the city for some time. "I want to know," said Gray, "whether you really mean business." "I do," said Ikey; "I want to bet $500 that Hayes is elected President." "Come with me," said Gray: and he led him down to the Yarborough House, and went around the counter to the safe. He had it opened and his $500 taken out. "Now put up your $500." Ike's cheek blanched. He had only wanted to scare somebody. He wasn't really spoiling to bet. The crowd looked on in silent anxiety. At length Ikey spoke, and he looked right sheepish as he did so: "I reckon you must have misunderstood me, sir; I said I would bet $100 to your $500."

The crowd sent up a shout, and as Ike drew his head out, he looked like he had just fallen out of the 'hind ead of a scavenger cart. Gray quoted a piece of poetry and Ike went off next morning with Kilpatrick.

Dead! Defunct! Gone up the Fiume! The Constitution, the Republican organ, passed in its checks yes erday at noon. It has gone up. It is no more. After, having blackguarded half the decent men of the State as men were never black guarded before, it closes its eyes simultaneously with the death threes of the party in behalf of which it labored so hard. A colored Republican barner remarked last night, while shaving a customer, that it had done more to carry North Carolina Dem eratic than anything else, and he never spoke more tru'y. It issued 5,000 copies per day and the State went Democratic by 15,000. If it had issued 10 000 the Democratic majority would have been 30,000. We thank it for the services which it has rendered our party, and shall hall its appearance in the next campaign as the sure precursor of a swee ping Democratic victory.

Address Before the Bingham Cadets. On Friday night Capt C. B. Denson delivered his excellent address 'The March of Science in a Century," before the cad-ts of Bingham's School, at Mebanesville, Al-ma ce county. This address has met with a great deal of favor before several cultivated au liences, and we have no doubt it excited the deep interest of the youths before whom it was last delivered.

The End of the Week.

With last night ended one of the most auxious and trying weeks that many of us remember to have ever undergone. From Monday morning to Saturday night the excitement and interest never once wavered. It began before the election, and continued through that day and night and each succeeding day and night up to this time. From the time the polls closed until midnight the excitement was intense to learn the result in this Sta'e At that hour it was considered settled, and all interest then centered upon the national contest. It was considered certain before daybrea; that this was in favor of the Democrats, but before the public had more than felt the flush of victory or the ignominy of defeat, doubt again arose and continued in the minds of many until Friday evening, when it again became certain that Tilden had carried a majority of the electoral votes A vague fear then seized the Democrats lest the appliances which are being used to defeat the popular voice should prevail, and even at this hour it cannot but be admitted that the general public feels some misgiv-

of who was chosen has passed beyond

The crowd which waited for news was smaller last night than any night during the week, and adjourned earlier, the telegraphic reports having clessed before 11 o'clock. The News thinks it has done its part by the public during these exciting times, having given it duplicates of its bulletins and regular press reports as fast as they came off the wires; and it goes to sleep this Sabbath morning, having seen the morn burst on every day since last Tuesday, with the full consciousness that it has done its duty to its people. and that right well, not only during the campaign, but since.

Meeting of Commissioners.

The Commissioners of the Western Insane Asylum at Morganton, will hold a meeting at that place on Tuesday next. These commissioners are Dr. Nereus Mendenhall, of Greensboro, Hon. J. C. Harper, of Lenoir, Col. T. George Walton, of Morganton, Capt. C. B. Denson, of Pittsboro, and Dr. Eugene Grissom, of this city. The purpose of this meeting is to thoroughly inspect the work which has been done on the building, and to make a report on it to the next General Assembly; and also to make arrangements for the proper care of the work during the coming winter.

The Speaking, the Speaking. It is probable that there was never so much speaking in any previous campaign. Raleigh has had its share-The writer of this bas no idea how many speeches, of one kind and another for one side and the other, he has heard within the past five weeks; but be does know that on last Monday and Monday night, he heard just twenty six speeches from the stump. For an ou' and out Radical or even a man who is any way shaky, this may be wouldn't be too much, but to one who believes every word in the Bible and who never thought of souring on the straight ticket, it looks like rather crowding the thing.

Another Kilpatrick Among Us. Last evening there arrived by the Raleigh and Gaston train a man who registered from Washington. He is another one of the Republican emissaries sent out from headquarters to doctor election returns, or for some other work of a similar character. He sought out the Radical leaders immediately after his arrival, and, it is supposed, was in consultation with them last night. The public has its eyes on these men, and is aware that schemes are on foot to defeat the expressed will of the people. A Case of Till Tapping.

A Circular from Chairman Cox to the Sheriffs of the State--The Time to Meet. &c. Gen. W. R. Cox has the following circular in press for distribution throughout the State for the information of all the shcriffs: ROOMS STATE DEM. Ex. COM.,) RALEIGH, Nov. 11th, '76. To the Sheriffs of the several counties of North Carolina:

There is an omission in the act amending the election law in Battle's Revisal, chapter 237, acts of 1874 and '75. Chapter 52 of Battle's Revisal is properly amended, and the time for the sheriffs in the several senatorial districts to assemble is definitely stated; but chapter 22 is not ailuded to, and therefore the time for the sheriffs in the congressional districts to meet and compare the vote is left unaltered. Upon comparing chapter 237, acts 1874 '75, with chapter 52 of Battle's Revisal, it will be seen that the same ratio of time between the election and the meeting of the commissioners, sheriffs, &c., is kept up, as near as may be. Chapter ---Battle's Revisal provides that the speriffs of the different districts shall meet at the several places therein designated on the third Thursday in August, &c., just two weeks after the election. Following out the analogy the time for the sheriffs of the different congressional districts to meet is Tu-sday, Nov. 21st. 1876, and the places are as set out in Battle's Revisal, chapter 22. This view has been submitted to Gov. Brogden who is the member elect from the second dis rict, and though he can give no otheral sanction, it meets his concurrence.

THE SITUATION.

The latest advices from "the seat of war" do not change the results announced in the NEWS of yesterday. The whole matter may be briefly summed up thus:

The Democrats have carried the States of Florida, Louisiana and South Carolina. This is unquestionable-although the Republicans will not admit it square out.

The vote of any one of these States, or a single solitary electoral vote from any source, will elect Tilden. The Radical managers, therefore, are "moving heaven and earth" to reverse the popular verdict, and have the certificates of election issued to the Hayes electors, and have it out at Washington before Vice-President

The troops are sent to give the Radical managers and manipulators the necessary back-bone to carry out the evil designs of the party. No doubt these arch-conspirators are in danger from the long-suffering but enraged people of Louisiana and

In the meanwhile, the balance of the South may possess their souls in patience, and look on. We have given the North an honest man for President. Let them see to it that he takes his seat.

Popular majority for Tilden is 528,-000. The popular majority for Hayes is 260,200. Tilden's majority over Hayes in 35 States is 267,800. The three States still in doubt are not included in the count. This shows who the people want for President. It demonstrates that had the result been dependent upon a direct vote, there would now be no doubt and suspense, the Democratic candidate having a decided majority over his Republican opponent.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

On Monday, the 20th inst., the next Legislature will convene in this city. It will be composed of fortyone democratic senators, nine republican senators, eighty-seven democratic commoners, and thirtythree republican commoners. This gives us a majority of 32 in the Senate, a majority of 52 in the House, and a majority of 84 on joint ballot. That will do. We are satisfied: we are "a full soul:" we are serenely content. The last Legislature stood as follows: Senate-39 democrats, 11 republicans: House-86 democrats, 34 republicans, Democratic majority on joint ballot, 80. Thus it appears that we gain two senators and lose one representative. We can rest easy with that. Fifty-two majority in the House, and 32 in the Senate is enough. A little opposition is wanted, to make things lively. Walk overs are not interesting.

The organization of the two houses will be watched with considerable interest, by the public. For the prominent positions, each section will have its favorite. There will be no difficulty in making choice of the most excellent presiding officers and clerks. The material to choose from is abundant, for we venture to say no Legislature for many years has contained truer or more capable men. It is an able representation of the people, and reflects North Carolina conservatism in its most genuine form. It is so'id to the core. Every good citizen will be pleased at this; for if there is any one thing just now which is popular above all cthers; it is the thing which is called "sol-

It is solid men-men solid in patriotism, solid in brains, solid in pubie virtue-who are coming from the mountains and from the sea-board to give effect to our amended Coastitution; to sweep out the debris of Radicalism; right up the things so sadly disjointed by the enemy, whom we have routed; straighten our financial matters; hold up the hands of Zeb. Vance in the g'orious work of redemption, retrenchment, reform, and the like, upon which he is to enter with the birth of the new year; and to choose from among our best men, some statesman of high intellect and noble pariotism to repre-

United States. None but "solid" men are capable of doing the work devolving upon tois all-important Legislature. That the Members and Senators elect will do their work well, we have not a doubt. It is composed largely of young men-gentlemen who have entered pub ic life since the war, and who are fully abreast with the times; men who live in the present, and do not cling to the fossilized issues of the dead past. This is well; the union of their vigor and energy of thought with the ripened wisdom of maturer years, will give us all the legislation which the State needs to set her again upon the track of prosperity and happiness.

GOVERNOR BROGDEN rises to explain about that Kilpatrick meeting in the Yarborough House. Like Dr. Howerton, His Excellency had nothing to do with it. We are very glad to hear this, we are happy to know that this "child of the skies" loves North Carolina's blue mountains and smiling valleys too dearly to conspire with such frauds as Judson B. and Albion W. against her liberties; and we are delighted that the last rose in the republican congressional garden of North Carolina did not waste his swestness on the desert air or Kilpatrick's scorched-up, defunct conspiracy, but dropped into that nocturnal meeting, just as he fell into the Gubernatorial chair-by accident. Read his card.

THE following members of the last Senate are returned: Charles Latham, Jno. B. Stickney, N. W. Boddie, John D. Stanford, L. R. Waddell, W. G. Albright, and John G. Marler -all good and true men. Two radicals, John Bryant, negro, of Halifax, and W. P. Mabson, negro, of Edgecombe, are re-elected.

EX-CONFEDERATE Colonel Tazewell L Hargrove will make way for one, the latchet of whose shoes he is not worthy to unloose. An ex Confederate Colonel is coming who bore through the war, a sword which was never drawn without cause, and never sheathed without honor.

TREASURER WORTH-that sounds mighty natural. Treasurer Worth will please come forward and take possession of the keys to North Carolina's strong box.

bosh of the same sort. And the Independents tried hard to swallow the wretched subterfuge and pretend that they did not know what was the real reason of the absence of the abandoned creature whom they denominate their standard bearer. A certain man was seen to reel into Mr. Twain's hotel last night in a beastly state of intoxication. It is the imperative duty of the Independents to prove that this besoited brute was not Mark Twain himself. We have them at last! This is a case that admits of no shirking. The voice of the people demands in thun-der-tones: 'Who is THAT MAN?'" It was increable, absolutely incredible, for a moment that it was really my name that was coupled with this disgraceful suspicion.— Three long years had parel over my head since I had tasted ale, beer, wine, or liquor of any kind

[It shows what effect the times were having on me when I say that I saw my of confilently dubbed "Mr. Delirium Tremens Tasiu" in the next issue of that j urns? without a pang—not with stanting I knew that with monotonous fidelity the paper would go on calling me so to the very end.]

By this time anon mous letters were getting to be an important part of my mail matter. This form was common: "How about that old woman you kiked of your premisers which was POL PRY. And this : "There is things which you have done which is unbeknowens to any-body but me. You better toot out a few dols, to yours truly or you'll hear thro' the papers from HANDY ANDY." This is about the idea. I could continue them until the reader was surfeited, if desirable.

Short y the principal Republican journals 'convicted' me of wholesale bribery, and the leading Democratic paper "nailed" an aggravated case of blackmailing to me. [In this way I acquired two additional names: "Twain, the Filt) y Corruption st," and "Twain, the

Loathsome | mbracer."] By this time there had grown to be such a clamor for an "answer" to the dreadful charges that were laid to me that the editors and leaders of my party said it would be political ruin for me to remain silent any longer. As if to make their appeal the more imperative, the following appeared in one of the papers the very next

"BEHOLD THE MAN!-The independent candida e still maintains silence. Because he dare not speak. Every accusation against him has been amply proved, and they have been indersed and reindorsed by his own eloquent silence, till at this day he stands forever convicted. Look upon your candidate, independents! Look upon the Infamous Perjurer! the Montana Thief! the Body-Snatcher! Contemplate your Incar-nate Delirium Tremens! your Filthy Corruptionist! your Loathsome Embracer! Gaze upon him-ponder him well-and then say if you can give your honest votes to a creature who has earned this dismal array of titles by his hideous crimes, and dares not o, en his mouth in deniel of any one

There was no possible way of get ting out of it, and so, in deep humiliation. I set about preparing to "auswer" a mass of baseless charges and mean and wicked falsehood. But I never finished the task, for the very next morning a paper came out with a new horror-a fresh malignityand seriously charged me with burning a lunatic asylum with all its inmates because it obstructed the view from my house. This threw me into a sort of panic. Then came the charge of paisoning my ungle to get his property, with an imperative demand that the grave should be opened. This drove me to the verge of d straction. On top of this I was accused of employing toothless and incompetent old relatives to prepare the food for the foundling hospital when I was warden. I was wavering— wavering. And at last, as a due and fitting climax to the shameless prosecution that party rancor had inflicted upon me, nine little toddling children of all shades of color and degrees of raggedness were taught to rush on to the platform at a public meeting and clasp me round the legs and call me "Pa! I gave it up. I hauled down my colors and surrendered. I was not equal to the requirements of a gubernatorial campaign in the State of New York, and so I sent in my withdrawal from the candidacy, and in bitterness of spirit signed it; "Truly yours, once a decent man, but now MARK TWAIN.

of North Caroline, has been received In parting with one with whom have been so agreeably associated in the executive department of the State government, allow me to express my sense of the loss the people of the State have sustained by your determination to return to private life. You were elected and inducted into office at a time when there was but little money in the Treasury, and when the State was just emerging from a condition in which the mes extraordinary demands had been made upon her resources of every character. You were called, with others, to aid in the difficult and delicate work of establishing a new government for the State, and to you was confided that branch of the publie service upon whose wise conduc the success of the new government referred to mainly depended. The finances of a State constitute as much the life blood of that State as the blood in the human body constitutes the life of the man. It is needless for me to say that you were fully equal to the occasion, and that you have more than met the expectation of the people. Your record as treasurer, embracing a period of more than eight years, is the best and highest evidence of your peculiar fitness for the position which you have occupied, and of the success which has characterized your administration. You had the full confidence of both my predecessors in the new government, as you have mine on retiring from the office which you have to long and so worthily filled. I am sure, sir, the whole people of the State will regret, as I do the loss of your valuable public services, and will unite with me in wishing you much prosperity and happiness in private life. With high regard and respect I remain your friend, C. H. BROGDEN, Governor. Card from Governor Brogden.

To the Editor of the News: In your speculations of the 10th and 11th inst., upon the recent visit of General Kilpatrick to this city, you do me very great injustice in imputing to me a purpose to tamper with the election returns. I was on the street on the night referred to, on indispensable business. I called, as I had a right to do, at the room of Col. Thos. B. Keogh, to hear the news from the elections. I did not know that Gen. Kilpatrick was in the city until I got to the Yarborough House, and he came into Col. Keogh's room a short time before I left. did not meet him or others with the shade of a shadow of a purpose to form a conspiracy to tamper with the election returns of this or any other State; and I hereby declare that your insinuation or intimation that I had any improper motives of any kind on the night referred to, in relation to that I have such motives now, or that I will have such purposes or motives hereafter are devoid of truth and wholly false.

Respectfully.
C. H. BROGDEN.

Pratt's Astral Oil Absolutely Safe. Perfectly odorless. Always uniform. Illuminating qualities superior to gas. Burns in any lamp without danger of exploding or taking fire. Manufactured expressly to displace the use of volatile and dangerous oils. Its safety under every possible test, and its perfect burning qualities, are proved by its continued use in over 500,000 families. Millions of gallons have been sold and no accident-directly or indirectly-has ever occurred from burning, storing or handling it

The immense yearly loss of life and property, resulting from the use of cheap and dangerous oils in the United States, is appailing.

The insurance companies and fire commissioners throughout the country recommend the Astral Oil as the best safeguard when lamps are used Sold wholesale and retail by the manufacturer's sole agents, Julius Lewis & Co., at their hardware store, Fayetteville street, Raleigh, N. C.

The Sabbath, which is to the work day world a day of rest and to the Christian world a day of devotion, is t . New York burglars a day of profit. The Herald says that scarcely a Monday morning passes without some vigilant police officer or early priter discovering that a robbery was committed the day before in some business house.

In view of a possible dispute over the vote of perhans a single State for President, the clear and accurate statement made in another column of the existing laws on this sui ject will be found timely and important This review shows that while the refusal of Congress to re-adopt the Twenty-second Joint Rule, which gave either House the right to reject State vote because of a satisfaction with its working, has left us almost entirely without actual regulations in such contingencies as now seem possible; there have been, never heless, certain precedents fixed by usage which may go far toward preventing awkward and even dangerous complications. The records show (1) that the President of the Senate has never attempted to act as a judicial officer in determining the validity of a Statevote; (2) that while suchquestions have invariably b en referred to bo h Houses of Congress, neither House has ever asserted its right to throw out a State or choose between two sets of returns, except under the Twenty-second Rule, which Con-gress has expressly omitted to reedopt; (3) that all disputes of this nature that have arisen have been decided by the two Houses, acting concurrently, though they derived no authority to do so either from the Constitution or the laws. The prece 'ent would seem to be set therefore of concurrent action by the two douses, and if the latest returns should foreshadow a wrangle over the vote of some one Siate, the hope of all good ci izens will be that Congress, during the coming session, and before the counting of the electoral vote, may come to some wise and patriotic agreement whereby, while all

In one of the most eloquent and telling speeches of the campaign, Mr. Henry Watterson, at Indianapolis, said, in touching upon Mr. Evarts' recent political address to the Wall street bankers:

just rights will be preserved, the danger of so deplorable a controversy

will be averted .- N. Y. Tribune.

But the worst is yet to come Evarts is seized upon in the last dire extremity, and made to play the part of stool pigeon to the gambling Wall street gang-the gang who predicted prosperity if Grant wes elected, ruin if there should be a change of parties, the gang whose corruptions, like those of the Republican party, re quire an oligarchy. I cannot tell you the disgust with which I read the speech of this pretentious person, this would-be man of the world among men of letters and men of letters among men of the world; this rose-water philosopher; this distincte stateman. I do not like to question motives or to call names, but one of two things is cer tain, either Mr. Evarts is magnified and overated beyond conception, being really ignorant, narrow-minded and malignant, or else he was paid a price to prostitute his intellectual convictions. What he says about the South is essentially the farrage of a black-guard at heart .--He is either that or the poll-parrot of blackguardism.

I beg your paidon for speaking so bluntly. It is not my babit to apply epithets to any man, but I could not do justice to the subject, I should be false to myself, if I failed to stigmatize the utterances of this political pettifogger. They are only another illustration of the common experience in life that the meanest and basest men often appear as the most harmiess, ambling through the world upon a pad-pony of prim deco-rum at d book ish conceit and exposing themselves only when their littleness or their parsimony happens to be tempted.

"HOME, SWEET HOME."-"Carl, or the Maid of Milan," produced in 1823, contains one piece that is known in every English-speaking country-"Home, sweet home " Carl is a beau tiful peasant girl, who has exchanged her father's lowly cottage for the splendor of the Duke's palace and became his bride. But she pines for the simple life she has led, and as she enters, fatigued and melancholy, she sings this song. The words are by John Howard Payne, an American, and though the music was called by Bishop a "Sicilian air." it is now generally agreed that it was really composed by him. "It is the song,' says Carl, "of my native village—the hymn of the lowly heart, which dwells upon every lip there, and like aspell-word brings back to its home the affection which e'er has been betrayed to wander from it. It is the first music heard by infancy in its cradle; and our cottagers, blending it with all their earliest and tenderest recollections, never cease to feel its magic till they cease to live." The air heard sgain during the play; a chorus of villagers sing it when Carl revisits her home.—English Tonic Sol-Fa Reporter.

Dunbar's Wife.

[From the Detroit Free Press.] Dunbar's wife listened to a long political discussion while riding down town yesterday morning, and at dinner she remarked to her husband, "Well, eight days more will decide this election." "In a measure" was his guarded reply. 'I'm awful glad,' she continued. "You commenced coing out at night about the first of March, and you've kept it up ever stoke! I'll be one happy woman about the 8th of November." "Charlotte," solemply interrupted the husband, "can't you understand this thing? The election will occur on the 7th of November, of course. After that date I must help count up the returns, verify them, put our clubs in training for the next campaign, examine the lies of the opposition, and so forth, and it may be next April before I get through. You must have patience, for everything is working all right." What could she do but burst into tears?

Col. G. N. Folk.

[Cáldwell Messenger.] On Monday night, this eminent gentleman, by invitation, addressed the colored people of "Freedom." The house was crowded with colored men, and quite a number of white men were in attendance. The Col spoke for more than an hour in an able and eloquent, though plain manner, and endeavored to prove to the colored man who was and who was not his friend. He explained to them the political and financial condition of the country. We never observed a n ore polite, well-behaved and atten-tentive audience. The colored pec-ple know Colonel Folk, and rely upon what he tel's them. Senator Norwood, of Georgia, is 46 years old, and the son of a tanner. When elected to the United States Senate he said he did not know thi: members of the Legislature that elected him. He is known as "Tat ner Tom," and can beat any man in Georgia telling a joke.

The Knowledge of Fraud Vitlates a

Contract. In the Supreme Court of the United States yesterday, in the case of Dresser against the Missouri and Iowa Railroad Company, which was an ac ion brought by the purchaser of a promissory no e, who had paid a portion of the conside a ion by which it passed to his ownership after he was aware it was obtained by the payee by fraul, the court af firmed a judgment against him, on the principle that the portion of unp-formed contract which is completed after notice of a fraud is not within the principle which protects a bona fide purchaser. Mr. Justice Hunt delivered the opinion .- National Republican.

A correspondent complains of snoring passengers in a sleeping car, and calls for the discovery of some method or the invention of some machine to prevent snoring We would policely luform the sufferer that a contrivance to waken a shorer was hit upon by a German savant some vears ago. It consisted of a powerful instrument of the nature of a speaking-trumpet, which was bent from the nose of the sleeper to his ear. The first snort of bis nostrils therefore, resounded in this ear like sudden thunder. The remedy was said to be eff ctual, but for some reason failed to become popular .-- N. Y. Herald.

Throw Phylisic to the Dogs; I'll None of It." We do not in the least feel like blami ig Macbeth for this expression of disgust; indeed, we are rather inclined to sympathize with him. Even nowadays most of the cathartics offered to the public are great, repulsive-looking pills, the very appearance of which is sufficient to "turn one's stomach." Had Macbeth ever taken Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets he would not have uttered those words of contempt. It is really encouraging, when one is ill, to find that a little, sugar-coated Pellet, no larger than a grain of mu-tard, will as promptly produce the desired effect as a dose of great, nauseating pills. These little Pellets, unlike other catharties, are really nature's physic. They do not debilitate, but tone and invigorate the system. No family should be without Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets.
